OUR CLASS ADVISOR

MRS. LINDA MCGUIRE

So quiet and yet always concerned, you continually seemed to be able to understand how we felt and what we thought. We depended on you to be there when we needed you, and you always were. You made things seem possible when they appeared virtually impossible. To you, Mrs. Linda McGuire, we proudly, and yet very humbly, dedicate our 1968 yearbook.

DEDICATION TO PARENTS

How much you've done for us. You've sacrificed, worried, and fretted, and many of you have scrimped and saved that we could have this opportunity. You encouraged us to press on when we came home tired, discouraged and ready to quit. You cared as we described our elated feelings and the joys we had experienced. We hope you can realize through this dedication how much you mean to us. Perhaps you can, but we can not fully realize, until we are, as the old adage goes, "in your shoes." Then, as we look back, we, ourselves, will more fully understand what we are trying to say.

HISTORY

Remember when ...

We entered Sept. 7, 1965; we sat in the hall learning each other's names; we went through the rulebook and were afraid we'd get "terminated"; we had to put on a talent show our second night in training; our capping ceremony and what followed it upstairs.

We got to go swimming at the "Y" on Tues. ; we first saw Mr. "D"; we used the Ouija Board; almost everyone was knitting.

We "be-bopped", and almost everyone was a dirty old man or woman. The first time we went on the clinical area; the time Mr. "D" lectured instead of asking questions; our Christmas parties from the Kiwanis Club and good old Santa's visits.

Remember the time in Professional Adjustments when we had to go outside and take a walk in order to wake up. Janie Hoover got her diamond; Rosanne had to have a stitch in her foot during study hours; 14 laundry bags didn't get picked up; we were finally allowed to wear shorts and slacks off campus; we had our bake sale and car wash.

The day we were officially freshmen; Jan Gegogaine and Linda Karg got their diamonds; it was April Fool's Day and there was a rumor that 9 of us had radios. We gave our first IM's; room checks; the waste basket bonfire; we sadly lost Sandy Kindel and Jan happily married Gene and we said good bye to her, and then Susie Stockard left us; we welcomed Ruth Ann to our midst. We had Kangaroo Court for the "probies"; Fyz's gallbladder; we had secret sweeties; our water battles; all those hold trays on Monday morning in D.K. ; the first delivery you saw; dressing the surgeon in O.R. ; we moved to third floor. So many of us were patients here in the hospital - Sheri, Fyz, Judy, Susie, Korona, and Sandi; more diamonds - Judy, Lin Schreffler; Korona, and Susie - our class believes diamonds are a girl's best friend.

Janie became Schmader and Audrey became Grohol; we had mysterious visitors and lots of trouble. The rumors and truth about closing our school; packing for affiliations and suffering through not having a sink in Warren; IPRs and Geriatrics; how nice it was to see residents, interns, and med. students in Buffalo.

Christmas '67 brought Barb, Dorothy, Rosanne, Vicki, and then Pinky diamonds; Mr. Lebo left; ward management, EOR, ICU, 3-11 shift; we were all back together again in April; Korona became Mrs. Say; Aug. 21 was here and how happy and yet sad we felt.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1968, being of sound mind, declare this to be our last will and testament. We hereby bequeath:

Dot Ace leaves her seat in front of the T. V. every Monday night to Kathy Costion ... but Peter is still mine!

Sherry Beckerink leaves her mispronounced words to the next president of Student Council.

Mary Ann Bell leaves her quietness to not so quiet Susan Matthews.

"Twiggy" Alexander leaves her hair style to Marie Wilson, - try sticking rollers with nails in that Marie!

With a happy heart and cramped hand, Korona Bickel wills her tour of duty in Viet Nam to anyone who can take it.

The many and varied crushes of Sandi Dittman are left to Patty Holliday - watch out Pat he likes blondes!

Karen Emanuelson wills her little "Pinkies" to Kathy Erickson, let's see if you can curl them Kath!

Jane Fye bequeaths her great adventures in Buffalo to her twin - It's rally time "Flash"!

Bonnie Hahn sadly leaves her money for singing lessons to Marilyn Brody - start practicing!

Dorothy Harley leaves all her interests, except one, in Clarion State to Judy Fisher.

Linda Karg Foster wills her unusual wit to Tom Ellis, if he dares to use it.

Susie Johnson leaves her faith in the words of her fellow man to any gullible Junior - How about Georganne?

With broom and dust pan in hand, Pam Oakes leaves the shambles of her room to Carol Loveless.

Vickie Osborne and Sheri Young, with empty hearts, leave their boxes of cotton balls to Kathy Maloney. Start stuffing "Malopes!"

Rosanne Ritts leaves her sexy eyes, which are an advantage even for shy girls to Emily Rowe.

Bea Siegel, who hasn't heard of the mini uni, leaves her uniforms to Cathy Ziegler, who has.

Linda Schreffler unwillingly leaves her disposition to Connie Best - good or what Connie?

Smiling Barb Smith leaves her ability to laugh at those inappropriate times to Bonnie Showers.

Ruth Ann Walker wills her empty peroxide bottle to Jackie Brown, fill it up and start working Jackie!

Red eyes, stuffy noses and all, Audrey Grohol and Jane Schmader happily leave their Warren and Buffalo affiliations to Audrey Handley and Joan Pfendler.

CLASS PROPHECY

In future years we see:

Dot is wandering around Haight-Asbury Park wearing a shabby beige blanket and priceless long hair.

In a one room apartment while chasing triplets, Sherry B. is still designing her dream house.

Rosanne is finding great satisfaction and fulfillment in her position as Practical Nurse Coordinator.

Notice; Linda Foster has been awarded the Good Housekeeping Award of 1978.

Susie Johnson is recuperating at her Canadian island refuge from her split thickness lip graft.

Pinky is deeply engrossed with her activities as industrial nurse at the Lapel Glass Plant in Indiana.

Famed singer Dorothy Harley is turning to drama with a lead role in the Community Playhouse production, "The Mouse That Roared."

Working in the nursery has proven to be contagious for Korona as she awaits the arrival of their thirteenth child.

Long awaited goal achieved as Ruth Ann Walker receives her Master's degree in Nursing Education.

While managing her all family baseball team, Pam still devotes some time to her hamster farm.

Chairman of the upcoming PLN convention is Lin Schreffler a noted voluntary worker.

Sheri Young is coping with her claustrophobia by carrying out her profession in the wide open prairies of Kansas.

Rumor has it, Judy is about to be married for the fifth time to John . . . , which one could it be this time.

Baby bottles have now replaced the coffee pot on Mary Bell's hot plate in her efficient newborn nursery.

Mrs. Schmader has just been appointed chairman of the Welcome Wagon for Venus and vicinity.

Super Scrub Nurse Bea Siegel in her top position at Johns Hopkins is pining away for her past pandemonious play nurse days.

Most of Sandi Dittman's time is occupied administering TLC in her home for lost sailors.

Barb Smith competent staff nurse at a famed New York City hospital is bouncing down the hall suffering light-headedness from her new bubble haircut.

Fyz is the proud owner of her own Harley-Davidson Shop.

Though confronted with stiff competition Bonnie Hahn recently received her third Olympic Gold Medal for her unusual style in the free division.

The professions most recent fashion model is none other than Audrey Grohol, modeling the latest in support hosiery.

Bubba Vicki and George Chadman are taking Sidney on their annual homage to Israel.

NURSE'S CREED

I will strive to go forward from this, time with purposeful endeavor.

To use my heart and mind to create - not to destroy.

To seek an understanding of my neighbor - not hold him in disdain.

To comfort and alleviate the fearful - not be the cause of last hope.

May my work be always in the high tradition of my Profession

An example of joy, kindness, patience and prudence

- A true reflection of love toward my fellow man.
